

Attachment to VOB/2460

"At the end of March 1953 GROSSBAHN noticed a man hidden in the bushes opposite his apartment and watching the entry-way to the villa. On the basis of his report, the area police carried out an action which resulted in the arrest during the first week of April of one Rudolph HAWELKA, born 30 July 1926 in Kottlingbrunn, Lower Austria, address Altmunster 179, Bezirk Gmunden, unemployed."

"Since HAWELKA is a member of the Communist Party, it is suspected that he had been assigned to watch BOLSCHWING and his visitors."

"It has been reported that GROSSBAHN is working for the American MIS in Salzburg."
